MOTORMAN NOT SERIOUSLY HURT

No Internal Injuries Result From Blow Received in Street Car Collision.

Motorman Herbert Stevens of Mishawaka, and Mrs. Sadie Weasz, 62 Marion av., Mishawaka, who were the most seriously hurt of six people injured in a rear end collision between two west bound south side Mishawaka cars on Lincoln way E., near May st., Wednesday evening, will be able to leave Epworth hospital within a few days. Stevens was unconscious for about six hours after the accident, owing to a blow in the stomach, but the authorities at the hospital said Thursday morning that no internal injuries had resulted.

Stevens was the motorman on the rear car and, it is supposed, lost control of his car, causing it to crash into the back of the one in front. When the two cars came together Stevens was thrown against the controller, receiving a severe blow in the stomach. He was unconscious when taken from the car and was unable to talk until early Thursday morning.

Four others besides Stevens and Mrs. Weasz were hurt, none of them seriously. Mrs. Weasz suffered severe cuts under the chin and minor bruises. Fred Schultz, conductor on the rear car, was cut in the face by flying glass, and Miss Imogene Hughes, 123 S. Main st., Mishawaka, was badly bruised about the neck. Two unknown men who were passengers on one of the cars were taken to Epworth hospital, but their injuries were not sufficient to cause them to be kept there.

Large number of street cars, automobiles and pedestrians going to the pageant grounds at Springbrook park were on Lincoln way E. when the accident occurred, but none but the passengers on the two cars was injured in any way. Wednesday night's accident was the first that has happened during the centennial, although thousands of people have been on the streets.

LEADS IN RECRUITING

South Bend Sent 19 Men to Guard During September.

Figures received recently from the state recruiting depot at Fort Benjamin Harrison, show that during the month of September, South Bend led the state in recruiting for the Indiana national guard. Nineteen recruits were secured at the local recruiting station on S. Main st., during September. Indianapolis and Tecumseh tied for second place with nine recruits.

One application, the only one to be received so far during the centennial celebration, was accepted Thursday morning by Capt. Middleton. The applicant, Thomas Connelly, was enlisted for the machine gun squad of the third Indiana, and left for Fort Benjamin Harrison.

Capt. Middleton has returned from Connersville, Ind., where he visited with relatives for several days. While there he made no effort to enlist men as Connersville is in the Indianapolis district.

LOCAL FIRMS MAKE DISPLAY OF PRODUCE

and the various episodes on the program moved off with clock-like precision. Perfection is expected to be right in the final performance and there may be some unusual features added to the closing presentation.

There was a large crowd in South Bend today. Many folks arrived early this morning by way of interurban, train and automobile.

The time was spent in visiting the display at the Northern Indiana agricultural society headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce where the pioneers gathered. The parade this afternoon necessitated the closing of many factories in the city and there was a mammoth crowd on the streets to greet the processional pageant.

the portraits on the wall, that of Chauncey Colver, former United States vice president whom she knew at the white house while a little girl. She praised the late statesman and declared him to have been one of the most energetic men who has ever held the second office of the nation.

Mrs. William Curtis Demorest urged the women of South Bend to organize and support their husbands in the fight for the election of Hughes.

She declared that she knew the Hughes family and that with Hughes as president there would be "a nice official family in the white house."

Because Hughes has promised to promote legislation which will mean national supervision of schools was the reason given by Mrs. Rheta Childe Dorr for supporting the republican candidate. She explained that this country needs a federal compulsory education law. Ten sentimental reasons for the support she is giving Hughes were expressed by Mrs. George Harvey, while Miss Maude E. Nimer asserted that the republican candidate has always been a strong advocate of social legislation and that this country is in need of new laws along these lines.

Miss Harriett Vittum of Chicago, a well known suffragist, declared that the women of this country should lend all their efforts to the election of Hughes because he had promised to support legislation which would give all women the ballot.

CAPT. ROGERS BACK

Capt. Clinton D. Rogers of Co. F, I. N. G., arrived home Tuesday night from Llano Grand, Texas, where the third Indiana regiment is stationed. Capt. Rogers is on a 20 day leave of absence. He reports that everything is going "just fine" with Co. F and that many of the boys seem to be enjoying their stay on the Texas border immensely. All were in good health when he left Saturday. Capt. Rogers expressed himself as uncertain when the third Indiana would be released from border service.

COUNTY PIONEERS ENJOY RECEPTION

Reunion is Held at Chamber of Commerce—Spelling Match is Held.

This week has been a week profile with the expression "Never before in the history of South Bend—" and once more must it be repeated, for never before in the history of South Bend has there been such a reunion of the pioneers of St. Joseph county as that which took place Thursday morning and afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce. Several hundred men and women wrinkled and bent with the burden of years and of labor given to the upbuilding of the St. Joseph county of today met to rejoice in the present and reminisce upon the past.

Many pioneers returned to the county from homes now distant, several from clear across the country, to be here for the occasion, and tears filled the eyes of many at the reunion of friends long separated. Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, sr., made a charming hostess, acquainted as she is with nearly all the older folks of the county—she even assayed a little mch-making on the side by giving the "boys" permission to hug as many of the "girls" as they chose.

Just after luncheon a brief program was given consisting of an address by Schuyler Colfax, jr., in which he expressed his great pleasure in the various events of centennial week and especially in the unveiling of the tablet to his father, Isaac Hutchins, first chief of the South Bend fire department, made a hit by singing "Paddy Carey" in brogue and John A. Hartman sang "Auld Lang Syne" and a little ditty which he said originated in the day when "young America tipped over the tea in Boston harbor."

Hold Spelling Match. Two of the most amusing features of the occasion were the Virginia reel and a spelling match in which Elmer Crockett acted as schoolmaster, giving out the words from a spelling book published in 1850, the property of Mrs. Thomas Stanfield.

Among the pioneers present there were 26 born in the year 1830, making them 86 years old. Mrs. Melinda Swaim, mother of Mrs. W. D. Bulla, 1017 Portage av., however, took the honor for age. She is 88 years old and has lived in South Bend 63 years. She has a twin sister, Mrs. Matilda Stanton, Nora, Ill., who is still living. The two sisters were the daughters of Dr. H. H. Way of Fountain City, Ind.

There were 10 present who were born in 1840; 20 born between 1841 and '45, inclusive; 16 born between 1846 and '50 and 15 born in the '50's. Among the older ones were Mrs. H. M. Smith, Mrs. John Stull, 77; Mrs. Mary Rose, 84; Mrs. P. C. Fields, 85; Mrs. Lydia A. Knott, 84; Jacob Kelly, 80, and William Knoblock, 84. Mr. Knoblock was the oldest man present.

Among the home-comers for this occasion were Mrs. Lena Schelter of Chicago, M. R. Axford of Chicago, Miss Gertrude Dilley of Berrien Springs, Mich.; Miss Margaret Hardman, Marion, Ind.; Jay Potchen of Chicago; Mrs. J. B. Carpenter, Miss Ollie Carpenter, of Newton, Kas.; Mrs. L. F. Bennett, Miss Narcissa Hamell and Miss May Stickney of Valparaiso, Ind.; Mrs. May Hooper Prindle of Chicago; George W. Brooks of New Paris, Ind.; Theodore A. Smith of Liberty township; Charles D. Hartman of Detroit; Frank H. Whinery and Mrs. R. S. Whinery of Minneapolis, Minn.; Carrie Rowell and H. C. Rowell of Valparaiso; J. W. Duffy of Chicago; Rev. Julian Hatch of Gaston, Ore.

There were others besides these, who registered late.

This very delightful affair was efficiently managed by two committees—the reception headed by Mrs. J. M. Studebaker and the luncheon committee headed by Mrs. F. A. Miller. The committees in their entirety were as follows:

Reception committee—Mrs. J. M. Studebaker, general chairman; Mrs. Elizabeth B. Shafer, Mrs. Mahala E. Dunbar, Mrs. John Stull, Mrs. Luanda Miller, Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer, Mrs. J. G. Smith, Mrs. Jacob Horne, Mrs. William Rose, Mrs. H. W. C. Fields, Mrs. Sarah Booth, Mrs. August Herzog, Mrs. John Ulline, Mrs. Julia McQuillen, Mrs. H. C. Crawford, Mrs. Malinda Swaim, Mrs. Mary Rose, Mrs. William Stull, Miss Abby Peffer, Mrs. Mary L. Hine, Mrs. P. O'Brien, Mrs. Elmer Crockett, Mrs. Priscilla Fields, all of St. Joseph county.

Luncheon committee—Mrs. F. A. Miller, chairman; Mrs. H. L. Greene, Mrs. J. G. Schurz, Mrs. A. M. Russell, Mrs. C. C. Herr, Mrs. A. D. Baker, Mrs. J. A. Judie, Mrs. E. G. MANY PERMITS WERE ISSUED IN SEPTEMBER

Figures as Presented by Commissioner Place Construction Cost at $196,714.

Practically four times as many buildings were given permits during the month of September, 1916, as received the official sanction during the same month of 1915. Add to this the fact that on an average the buildings contracted for the last year were of greater value than those of the previous year.

Buildings and improvements to the value of $196,714, were given permits during the month just passed which is more than 512 per cent of the value of all the permits issued during the same time in 1915. Though this covers but a short period and is apt to leave a false impression of the growth of the city, still it is a fact that there are more than twice as many permits issued so far this year as were issued during the same period of 1915.

The fees of the department, exclusive of those taken in by the city electrician, who has as yet had no opportunity to present a report, amounts to $489.55. The major portion of this amount was collected, of course, upon the issuance of the 117 building permits.

September also marks an advance over the phenomenal building month of August, which registered 98 permits to the value of $131,997, by increasing 22 per cent in number and 49 per cent in value.
